RE: Attachment to Form TA-2 – Paragraph 11. a.

First American Stock Transfer, Inc. ("Registrant") has a policy of "immediate search," whereas when a shareholder's address is changed on the date we receive the notice of change. If First American receives correspondence returned mail we apply the new address if notified by the Post Office, or search several databases. One of these databases is TransUnion Skip-Trace, a section of the Credit Reporting Company. Because of the cost of this service, we only use it when the shareholder has significant shares, i.e. shares of more than $10,000 in value

Dates of Skip Trace Searches:

March 25, 2003	7
May 25, 2003	5
July 25, 2003	3
November 25, 2003	1

In addition to these searches, addresses could be changed for reasons of Issuer Notification, Post Office Notification, DTC Notification, Correspondence, or from shareholder. A complete breakdown of these searches is available, but the list is very long. The totals were 46 changes to addresses for 2003.

Yours truly,

David M. Young
Vice President
